Dear Sirs:-

I have just received the receipted bill for 29 lamps amounting to $12.94. Also a credit memorandum from you, for one lamp returned, $.46.

I had sent the check before I had received the credit memorandum, and supposed that the lamp returned would be replaced by another lamp, and therefore sent the full amount of the bill.

If just as convenient for you, I would be glad if you will send the amount of the credit, $.46, in postage stamps, so that we will not have to make a record on our books of such a small amount being due to the Society.

Very truly yours,

Secretary.
